Eligibility
To be considered, applicants must:
1) Be currently enrolled and in good standing in a college or university.
2) The ICambio program has been approved for university credit by your home university.
3) Open to specified nationalities.
4) Application Deadline: April 1, 2005.

Application Procedure
In addition to completing all ICambio application materials, scholarship applications must:
1) Submit this scholarship application form.
2) Write and send a 500 word essay on the following topic:
   - You know that studying in Argentina and/or Chile will be an amazing experience but someone in your life is not convinced. Explain to that person why you have chosen to study abroad in Argentina and/or Chile.
3) Send official university transcript.

Selection Process
Students may submit only one scholarship application and essay. Each student is only eligible for one scholarship. ICambio offers a total of 48 scholarships for Semester 2 in 2005. The awards are valued at a maximum of $1,000 USD each. If an insufficient number of qualified candidates apply, ICambio reserves the right to allocate less than the maximum amount of scholarships.

The scholarships are not based on need but are awarded to the winners of the essay contest. Candidates who meet the scholarship criteria and program requirements will have their essay judged by an ICambio committee. The decision of the committee is final and not subject to appeal. Scholarship winners will be notified by phone or email by April 30, 2005. Scholarship applicants give ICambio the right to publish their essay, in part or in whole, on the ICambio website, in ICambio materials, and to release it to their home university.
